Exercising Can Benefit Your Business

- Did you know that employees who exercise regularly are more likely to have higher job performance?
- Exercise is the most critical thing anyone can do to improve brain function and resiliency to disease.
- Beyond that, physical exercise has many other science-backed health benefits, like releasing mood-boosting brain chemicals and decreasing stress hormone production.
- The World Health Organization recommends 150 minutes of exercise per week, and that 11 minutes of exercise per day will boost brain health and your overall wellness.

Logistics

- Employees can choose between two payment options, monthly recurring or annual upfront payments.
- Annual: One-time fee for the year
- Monthly: Payments made on the 15th of every month for 12 months
- Employees will need to provide proof of employment annually, such as a current I.D. badge, paystub, or letter from Human Resources.
