LEMONADE DAY

WHEREAS, Lemonade Day is a free, community-wide educational initiative providing children with the opportunity to learn and apply entrepreneurial thinking and create a foundation for success; and,

WHEREAS, Lemonade Day has a mission to help today's youth become the business leaders, social advocates, community volunteers and forward-thinking citizens of tomorrow; and,

WHEREAS, Lemonade Day exists to infuse today's youth with the spirit of enterprise, teaching the basic business and entrepreneurial skills necessary to become successful, contributing members of communities; and,

WHEREAS, Lemonade Day offers opportunities for families, businesses, schools, youth organizations, neighborhoods, institutes of higher learning, and government agencies to unite for a common purpose - to train the next generation of entrepreneurs; and,

WHEREAS, Lemonade Day is a day of learning and celebrating Berthoud's future. On August 28th every citizen has a job - either buying or helping children sell lemonade; and,

NOW THEREFORE, pursuant to the powers vested in me as Mayor of the Town of Berthoud, I do hereby proclaim August 28, 2021 to be LEMONADE DAY in the Town of Berthoud, Colorado and encourage every citizen to participate in this event to demonstrate how our community cares for the future of our youth. Whether you're mentoring a youth, hosting a stand, or purchasing lemonade, the entire community can be involved in supporting our young entrepreneurs.

Given under my hand in these free United States in the Town of Berthoud, on this 10th day of August 2021, and to which I have caused the Seal of the Town of Berthoud to be affixed and have made this proclamation public.

William Karspeck, Mayor
