

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, In 1954, the first Saturday in September was designated as "Flapjack Day", as a means for rural and town residents to join in common joyful activity;
- WHEREAS, this day, now known as Berthoud Day, and celebrated on the first Saturday of June, has been observed for each of the last 49 years and still maintains much of its original character;
- WHEREAS, Berthoud Day is still a time for townspeople of all ages to celebrate their heritage and interact with fellow townspeople;
- WHEREAS, many residents in outlying areas now come to visit our town on this day and join in the celebration;
- WHEREAS, area businesses and organizations have an opportunity at Berthoud Day to showcase their wares and sell their products;
- THEREFORE, we, the Board of Trustees of the Town of Berthoud, do hereby proclaim June 5, 2004 as
- The 50th Anniversary of Berthoud Day, and
- FURTHER, urge all citizens to celebrate Berthoud Day and to participate in its many events.

Signed this 10th day of February 2004
