PROCLAMATION

AS MAYOR, OF THE TOWN OF BERTHOUD, I hereby proclaim this day, September Fifth, in the year, Nineteen Hundred Eighty-Eight, as being the day of the planting of the time capsule, commemorating the ONE HUNDREDTH BIRTHDAY OF THE TOWN OF BERTHOUD.

WHEREAS, the Citizens of Berthoud have much to be proud of and have chosen the use of a time capsule to preserve for future generations some of the documents and history of the Town that may recall and reinstate pride that those of us present in 1988 felt about our great Town and it's citizens.

WHEREAS, with this time capsule we pass on to future generations, the responsibility to continue with community pride and the never ending joy of looking forward to being able to pass on to others the same documents contained in this capsule, along with those historic achievements that have occurred in passing the time to the year 2038 AD.

WHEREAS, be it further proclaimed that on an appropriate date and at an appropriate celebration, in the year, 2038, this capsule be opened to be reviewed and enjoyed by all and that after copies are made and the additional history of the lapsing time added, the planting of the time capsule with appropriate proclamations occur again for future generations to enjoy.

THIS PROCLAMATION MADE THIS FIFTH DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1988.

Richard D. Strachan, Mayor

Orahbelle Patterson, Clerk
