

PROCLAMATION

NURSING HOME RESIDENTS' DAY

April 27, 1984

- WHEREAS, there are over 18,000 citizens residing in Colorado's nursing homes, and one in 5 older Americans will likely reside in a nursing home at sometime; and
- WHEREAS, nursing home residents are oftentimes forgotten and isolated from the community, and therefore must be recognized for their contributions to the growth, development and progress of the city; and
- WHEREAS, nursing home residents as elders with many years of life experience, deserve to have their knowledge and expertise utilized as an integral part of our nation's human resources; and
- WHEREAS, nursing home residents deserve to be regarded by others as individuals, with dignity and respect; and
- WHEREAS, the last Friday of April of each year has been designated as National Nursing Home Residents' Day;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, TOMMY B. FELLOWS, Mayor of the City of BERTHOUD, in the County of Larimer, in the State of Colorado, do hereby proclaim April 27, 1984, as in the City of Fort Collins.

GIVEN under my hand and the Seal of the City of BERTHOUD this 18th day of April, A.D. 1984.
